II. My Rights

I understand that I do not have to sign this authorization in order to get health care benefits (treatment, payment, enrollment, or eligibility for benefits). However, I do have to sign an authorization form:

- to receive research-related treatment in connection with research studies or
- to receive health care when the purpose is to create health care information for a third party.

I may revoke this authorization in writing at any time. If I do, it will not affect any actions taken by North Seattle Pediatrics in reliance on this authorization before it receives my written revocation. I may not be able to revoke this authorization if its purpose was to obtain insurance.

Two ways to revoke this authorization are:

- fill out revocation form – a form is available from North Seattle Pediatrics or
- write a letter to North Seattle Pediatrics.

III. Protection after Disclosure. I understand that once my health care information is disclosed, the person or organization that receives it may re-disclose it and that privacy laws may no longer protect it.
